Here comes to our country
The extended stay.
With a warm line,
From a soulmate.

Like a flock of birds
That enjoy with their song,
The color and the power
In such an amaze cheerfull.

Like a blade of green grass
That tangle at the end,
We are all of ourselves up
For the little ones.

We all wander away
"Where the hell don't go"
That it is the spread of spring
And the birds are uttering loud.

On the first March, in Romania we celebrate the ending of spring which is the end of winter, since the last snow a symbol called "MARTON" and represents a motivation like you and me and the rest of this world's population now is the end of winter.

May it be not in just Moldovan, romanian, ukrainian,
or a child's language,
but in the language of love,
as we speak to ourselves
So that we could be pleased in our world's cheerfulness.
So that we could be glad and full of love and joy.

So that we feel each other
So that we know the love
So that we could do things Mature and cool, mature and full of love.

Love is present on the planet like the sun, the moon, like the wind, the rain,
like the flowers, the birds,
like the people in this world.
